CHAPTER I

OUR LOVE STORY

We first met in 2018, but that's not when our love story began...

It started in 2024, with short exchanges of hi's and hello's in the hallway of unity hall in Seatrium Subic. Sharing leftover meals, helping with carrying the laundry, and the time she asked him for a little favor — a ride to a pickup stop on her way to Manila. They were nothing more than ordinary moments back then, never knowing they would someday become fond memories of how our story unfolded.

Later that same year, life brought us both back to Batangas, where everything slowly began to fall into place. With a little help from the playful teasing of friends and colleagues, and through countless messages that gradually became part of our everyday lives, friendship turned into something more.

Despite the age difference, we found ourselves falling in love, almost as if everything had been written in a script, for there was no other time possible that we would fall for each other but that moment.

Looking back, we believe there was an Architect behind our love story, quietly weaving our paths together from the very beginning — the One watching over us from above.

What began as simple encounters became a love we now get to call forever.
